Another Successful City Celebration:

The delicious smell of fried hamburgers and onions is gone again for another year. The Legion's Hamburger Stand is put away. The hot air balloonists and their crews have all went home (well except for our own balloonist's the Lewis's and Marhoun's). All of the planning and preparation that went into the parade, road races, variety show, class reunions, car show, food vendors, tournaments, balloon demos, raffles, kid's games, craft and flea market, roast beef commercial supper and pancake breakfast resulted in a very nice weekend in spite of the cooler temperatures. A town celebration does not just happen on its own. It takes dedicated people who are willing to pitch in and give of their time and talent that make it possible. Thanks to each and every one of you for whatever part you played in making Old SOD Day 2010 a success.

BALLOONS OVER BELVIEW:

While it is no longer a new sight to see a couple of hot air balloons in the air from time to time in Belview, this weekend did offer a fun opportunity for many to see 8 hot air balloons in the sky over Belview at one time.

One of the balloons flying over Belview this past week was the Freedom Flight III balloon which was sponsored by the Belview American Legion and piloted by Bill Marhoun. The Freedom Flight's hot air balloons have flown in over 40 U.S. states, Canada, France, Germany and Belgium to increase public awareness of the POW/MIA issue.

The other balloons were piloted by John Lewis, Bonnie Marhoun, Jim Borchert, Rose Aikins, Brett Tupy, Lynn Huppert, Sam Blackburn and Curt Shippy. Thanks to the pilots and their crews for being a part of our Old SOD Day celebration.
