Linda Sullivan made a motion which was seconded by Myrle Peterson to approve an application for the Belview Fire Relief to conduct off site gambling at the Odeon Hall on November 11, 2017

The City Council approved an Evacuation Agreement with Parkview Senior Living for the use of the Odeon Hall and the Community Center in the event that they would need to evacuate residents from their facility.

Investment options were discussed. It was agreed to invite someone to one of the next council meetings to discuss different investment options available to the city.

In preparation for Old SOD Day, the city council approved spraying for mosquitos which are quite bad after all of the rain we have had lately.

The approach for the alley at the north end of the alley between North Main and Lake Street has been done. The new cement approach will be allowed to cure for awhile before further work is done on extending the alley.

Linda Sullivan gave the Parkview Senior Living report. We are up to 24 residents.

A motion was made by Myrle Peterson and was seconded by Dianne Donner to adjourn.
